§ (Special Correspondence.)
Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 30.—What is regarded by railroad officials and men as a phenomenal performance, if not a world's record, is the run made last evening by a special stock train from Cheyenne to Sidney. The train was composed of thirty-eight cars of stock and was pulled by engines 637 and 740. The run of 102 miles was made in two hours and forty-five minutes without a stop.

EXERCISES AT "FEAST OF THE COLLEGE" LAST NIGHT.

Entertaining Address by Mr. O'Neill of Chicago-Paid Eloquent Tribute to Utah Scenery.

Is in effect.

Author of the difficulty, it was a distinct of the board members that Susent Pinney of the buildings made should give the Hebrew every facility for gaining access school recomes until the 20th members of vacating.

Yesterday was All Hallows day in the Catholic church, and the usual "Feast of the College" was given in the exhibition hall of the institution could be the poly day. There was a given and for the holy day. of this month, the date of vacating.

After the meeting Mr. Pinney suggested to Mr. Levy that he should make arrangements with Bishop Empey for the use of the rear of the Thirteenth ward meeting house, but the aggrieved gentleman demurred, saying that his God was a mighty lot older than the bishop's field, and he would entertain no proposal to occupy the rear part of any church.

The exhibition hall of the institution named for the holy day. There was a distinguished audience present at the exercises last evening, a feature of the programme being the closing remarks by H. O'Neill, a cousin of Father Larkin and a distinguished lawyer from Chicago. Upon being introduced by Father Murphy, vice president of the college, Mr. O'Neill paid, the following eloquent tribute to Salt Lake.

The programme, as carried out, was Organized Labor Adopts Resolutions Against Wallace & Co.

The firm of Wallace & Co. heard from the organized workingmen of Salt Lake at a public meeting held in the G. A. R. Violin solo, "Legende," A. Pederson, hall last evening. The meeting was called to consider the fight that has been going on for some time between Wallace & Co. and the tailors' union of this city. The outcome of the meeting was that a resolution was passed unanimously, by a rising vote of all those present, endorsing the tailors' union in

The case of the striking tailors against this firm was stated by Carl Ostby. He claimed that the firm was systematically cutting the wages of the men and some years ago cut the price for making a certain grade of garment from $9.25 down to $5. He told of one man who had been working for this firm for some years and who was compelled to work at home lately because
